MIRACLE OF QURAN INTENSIFIES OPPONENTS PLUNGE DEEPER INTO DISBELIEF

The Qur'an's miracle is mathematical. Therefore, it makes perfect sense that the numbers mentioned throughout the Qur'an should conform to the Qur'an's mathematical system.

This report announces the confirmed results of researching all the numbers in the Qur'an. As it turns out, the Qur'an mentions 30 different numbers. It should be noted here that the number 19 mentioned in the Qur'an is found in Verse 30 (Sura 74), and the extra Basmalah that perfects the total number of Basmalahs in the Qur'an is found in Verse 30 (Sura 27). When we add these 30 numbers, the total sum is a multiple of 19 (see Table). It is a consistent rule throughout the Qur'an's miraculous mathematical system that the repetitions must be eliminated. Thus, only one representative of each number is taken. The numbers which are mentioned only once in the Qur'an are: 11, 19, 20, 50, 60, 80, 99, 300, 2000, 3000, 5000, 50000, and 100000. The other Qur'anic numbers are repeated, and include 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 30, 40, 70, 100, 200, and 1000. The total of all the numbers mentioned in the Qur'an, without repetition, is 162146, or  $19 \times 8534$ .

Thus, the Mathematical Miracle of the Qur'an continues to explode, and the condemnation of God's enemies is utterly assured for refusing to acknowledge such an overwhelming divine sign. When the retribution comes to them—and it is now imminent—they, before anyone else, will KNOW that they have REALLY deserved it.

Indeed, "One of the greatest miracles" (74:35)

My mission is not a popularity contest or a political movement. On the contrary, I am here to distinguish the true believers, and to sift away those who are utterly convinced that they are believers, without perceiving that they are hypocrites.

THE PROPHET OF THE COVENANT

By HASAN M. RAWAT, M.A.
of Barolia, Gujarat, India.

The writer...

BEHOLD! Allah took the Covenant from the prophets (in the world of souls before the creation of Adam) saying: "I give you a Book and Wisdom. Then comes to you an Apostle confirming what is with you; do ye believe in him and render him help." Allah said: "Do ye agree and take this covenant as binding on you?" They said, "(Yes), We agree." He (Allah) said, "Then bear witness and I am with you among the witnesses." (Sura Al-i-Imran: Verse 81 - Qur'an).

When Allah made this solemn covenant with His prophets about an Apostle to come, that Apostle should not only be the best and the most important, but also the last to come, so He (Allah) gathered His prophets and made a covenant with them. The prophets agreed with Him. The Apostle of the Covenant was Muhammad (s.a.w.). Hazrat Ali ibn Abi Talib (R.A.) and Abd-Allah ibn Abbas said that this Mithaq-e-Nabiyyin (Covenant of the Prophets) was for Muhammad (s.a.w.). Allama Subki says that all the prophets promised to believe in the prophethood of Muhammad (s.a.w.) and advise their followers to have faith in his (Muhammad's) prophethood; and, as such, they would be counted as members of his (Muhammad's) Ummah. So he was the prophet of all the prophets. The words: ثم جاءكم ("Then comes to you") indicates that such a great Apostle was to come as the last of all of them.

The words: صورتكم كما مسلم also say that he will vouchsafe all the knowledge given to the prophets of the past; and thereby, too, it is suggested that he will come as the last of all the prophets.

So the Apostle of Allah said: "If Nabi Musa (A.S.) were alive he would have no alternative but to obey me."

And when Nabi Isa (A.S.) descends (in his second advent), he will follow the teachings of the Qur'an and the Prophet Muhammad's (s.a.w.) commands. (Ibn Kathir).

In the Covenant of the Prophets with Allah the prophets gave Him the promise to fulfil the duties of their prophethood, help one another, vouchsafing one another's truthfulness, and announce to their peoples that Muhammad (S) is the last prophet of Allah and there is no prophet after him (Muzhari).

THE PROPHET OF THE PROPHECIES OF THE PROPHETS

The Ahle Kitab (The Jews and the Christians) knew about the Apostle of the Covenant from their Scriptures (Pentateuch and Evangel of the

An article entitled "THE PROPHET OF THE COVENANT" was published in the latest issue of South Africa's MUSLIM DIGEST. Hasan Rawat bases his whole article on Verse 3:81. As shown in the photocopied portion of the article, Mr. Rawat acknowledges that Allah has taken a covenant from the prophets, whereby they pledged to believe in and support an apostle who will come after them. Mr. Rawat's basic understanding of 3:81 was correct. However, his identification of Muhammad as that particular apostle was founded on a number of glaring mistakes:

- (1) Mr. Rawat's mistakes begin with the title of his article; Verse 3:81 proclaims the advent of an "apostle" (Rasool) who will confirm all the "prophets" (Nabis). The correct title should have been "THE APOSTLE (RASOOL) OF THE COVENANT," since the Verse talked about a "Rasool" (messenger or apostle), not a "Nabi" (prophet).
- (2) The prophet Muhammad certainly was a prophet (Nabi), the final prophet, and must be included in "the prophets" (Nabiyyeen) of 3:81. Verse 3:81 talks about "THE PROPHETS" without any exclusions. It does not say "the previous prophets," or "the prophets prior to Muhammad," or any such exceptions. Why did Hasan Rawat exclude Muhammad from "the prophets"? This is his second glaring mistake.
- (3) Obviously, Mr. Rawat is not at all aware that the Qur'an did specifically tell us that Muhammad was one of the prophets who gave that solemn pledge to God. God of course knew that some people, like Mr. Rawat, will exalt Muhammad beyond the truth, and make him the "Apostle of the Covenant." Consequently, God's infinite wisdom saw to it that Muhammad is specifically shown to have been one of those prophets who pledged to support the APOSTLE OF THE COVENANT. Verse 7 in Sura 33 tells the world that Muhammad was one of the prophets who made that historic pledge: "We took a covenant from all the prophets; from you (Muhammad), and from Noah, Abraham, Moses, and Jesus the son of Mary. We took a solemn covenant from them" 33:7.

Any objective and sincere believer in the Qur'an will readily see that Muhammad could not possibly be the "Apostle of the Covenant." In the last few issues of M.P., irrefutable evidence was presented to prove that Rashad Khalifa is indeed the "Apostle of the Covenant." Through mathematical coding, the Qur'an identifies Rashad Khalifa, by name, as God's messenger or apostle who will confirm all the prophets and restore all their messages. Prominent among those proofs are:

1. Unveiling the Qur'an's miraculous, 19-based mathematical code after it had remained a divinely guarded secret for 1400 years.
2. The root word for "Rashad" in all its forms is mentioned in the Qur'an precisely 19 times (see INDEX TO THE WORDS OF QUR'AN, Page 320).
3. When we add the numbers of the suras and verses where "Rashad" and "Khalifa" are mentioned, the total comes to 1463, or  $19 \times 77$ .
4. If we get specific, and look for the specific names "Rashad" and the human "Khalifa" (38:26), and add the numbers of suras and verses where these two names are found, the total comes to 171, or  $19 \times 9$ .
5. The gematrical value of the whole verse 3:81 is 13148, or  $19 \times 692$ .
6. The gematrical value of the statement within 3:81 that specifically says "Then comes to you an apostle confirming what is with you," is 836, or  $19 \times 44$ .
7. Verse 33:7 that informs us that Muhammad was one of the prophets who made that famous pledge consists of 76 letters, or  $19 \times 4$ , and this is the same number of letters as the first Qur'anic revelation (96:1-5). Additionally, when we add the sura number (33) to the verse number (7), we get the verse number in the same sura (Verse 40) which informs us that Muhammad was the last prophet (Nabi).
8. The gematrical value of Moses (116) plus Jesus (150) is a multiple of 19, the gematrical value of Ismail (211) plus Isaac (169) is a multiple of 19, and the gematrical value of the apostles of Islam Abraham (258) and Muhammad (92) is not completed to a multiple of 19 unless we add the gematrical value of Rashad (505). Thus, the gematrical value is a multiple of 19 only when we add the values of the three messengers of Islam Abraham, Muhammad, and Rashad (see details in the June issue of M.P.).

Finally, the MUSLIM DIGEST tried to "prove" that Rashad Khalifa is NOT a messenger of God on the basis of glaring mistakes that a first grader in any Arabic school can see. Here are their comic reasons for rejecting Rashad as God's messenger!!!:

1. Rashad lied when he said that the Qur'an is perfectly preserved, then declared that 9:128-129 are false, human-made verses.
2. The Basmalah (1:1) "consists of 23 letters, not 19."
3. The word "Allah" occurs in the Qur'an "more than 2698 times." They don't know how many times, but they are sure that it occurs more than 2698 times.

If these are the MUSLIM DIGEST's objections, then the MUSLIM DIGEST has just confessed that Rashad Khalifa is God's messenger, THE APOSTLE OF THE COVENANT. For all three allegations against Rashad are easily refuted as follows:

- [1] Rashad has always maintained that the Qur'an is perfectly preserved. The overwhelming evidence that 9:128-129 are false actually proves the perfect preservation of the Qur'an, and the inability of God's enemies to inject any falsehood into the Qur'an. The realization that these two verses are false began long time ago, and Al-Bukhari is one of the many classic references that proclaimed that 9:128-129 are suspect. The Qur'an's mathematical code proved beyond doubt that these two sentences are false. In fact, one of Rashad's major missions is to confirm the pure and perfect Qur'an, and to nullify the flimsy attempt to tamper with God's final message to the world.
- [2] Anyone who reads Arabic and looks at any Qur'an in the world will see clearly that Basmalah (1:1) does consist of 19 letters. The whole Muslim World knows that the famous gematrical value of Basmalah is 786, which is the sum total of 19 letters' gematrical values, not 23. This is an incontrovertible physical fact.
- [3] Equally incontrovertible is the physical fact that the word "Allah" occurs in the Qur'an 2698 times,  $19 \times 142$ . Just look up INDEX TO THE WORDS OF QURAN (Pages 40-75) and count the occurrences of the word "Allah." You will find the total 2698 (of course, you have to remove the two false sentences at the end of Sura 9).

P.S.: The MUSLIM DIGEST's article is in Vol. 38 (19x2), Nos. 9 & 10 (19).

ALL THE PROPHETS BELIEVED IN ME

Rashad Khalifa

What I am about to tell you is something for which I will be held responsible before God and the whole of humanity on the Day of Resurrection.

On Tuesday, the third day of Zul-Hijja, 1391 (December 21, 1971), I, Rashad Khalifa, the soul, the real person, not the body, was taken somewhere in the universe, where I was introduced to all the prophets. All the prophets, including Muhammad, Jesus, Moses, Abraham, Solomon, David, Idris, Noah, Ismail, Isaac...all of them, one by one, declared that they believe in me as the "Apostle of the Covenant." That incident, which took place during my pilgrimage to Mecca, was the fulfillment of Verse 3:81. That incident took place while I was fully awake, and I have shared the details with my family, my family of believers, and with my friends. The details will be discussed, IN SHAA ALLAH, during the forthcoming Third Conference of the United Islamic Nation.

Please note that the date of my vision was Zul Hijja, 3, 1391. When we add the number of the month (12), plus the day (3), plus the year (1391), the total comes to 1406, or 19x74, and 74 is the sura where the number 19 is found.
